What to learn more about Permaculture?

Join local Permaculture experts Rick Coleman and Adrian James at The Cape Community Farm for this great opportunity.

On the Day you will:

- Gain an introductory understanding of the Permaculture Design Framework.
- Learn about how Permaculture empowers practitioners to make positive change in their communities.
- Participate in a tour of The Cape Ecovillage looking through the eyes of expert permaculture practitioners.
- Make connections assisting you to launch out on your own permaculture journey.

Cost: Farm Members: $80 General Public $90
